The Soap Box (12/07/02)

The Soap Box is on hiatus 'til after the holidays.

But I will give you one holiday safety tip ... so many people say 'don't drink and drive ... oh, oh, don't drink and drive, it's awful' ... yeah, yeah, and yes, while I hypocritically agree ...

I feel like the worst thing I do when I drink is go on ebay!

Yes ... drink and ebay! You would be surprised what kind of awful shit starts looking good when you are pissed drunk.

I am starting a new slogan ... 'Don't Drink and ebay!'

Maybe I will start an organization: MADE ... Mothers Against Drunk Ebayers

The last time I was really lit up, I woke up and realized I had bid on a 1979 Trans Am painted up like Smokey and the Bandit ...

Thank God I was sniped ...

Do yourself a favor ... put down the bottle and the mouse ...

Happy Holidays ...

Until next time.
